

SHIELDS MAN SHE LOVES

Miss Blanche Tennis Under Arrest on the Charge of Perjury.

SIMON CAPPS IN JAIL

Jumped His First Bail Bond and No One Will Now Come to His Release.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, Va., July 6.—Miss Blanche Tennis, a pretty young woman, in trying to shield the man she loved, was arrested on a charge of perjury. The case is replete with sensational and dramatic situations.

Charles Knight was arrested on a charge of assaulting Miss Tennis's mother, at the home of Mrs. Tennis and her daughter, on Princess Anne Avenue. Miss Tennis was called by the grand jury as a witness. The grand jury claimed that she made false statements in an effort to smooth over the offense of Knight, whom she loved. The young woman was arrested on a bench warrant. On her way to the station house, she collapsed under the nervous strain, and had to be taken to a physician's office for treatment.

The charges against the fair prisoner have been continued. A good deal of sympathy has been aroused in behalf of the young woman.

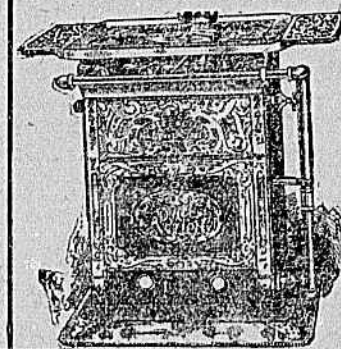

SIMON CAPPS IN JAIL

Simon Capps, well known in Richmond, Norfolk and other cities in the South, as having squandered several fortunes in high living, is in a serious plight. Last Saturday night Capps became involved in a difficulty with a suburban trolley car conductor, on the car, and opened fire upon his adversary, seriously wounding him. He is now in the Norfolk county jail, and, having jumped the first bail of $5,000, upon which he was released, he can now find no one to go surety for him, and a man who, at several stages of his career, has had thousands at his command, must now occupy a felon's cell.

MR. LOYALL QUALIFIES.

The newly elected police justice, Lawyer W. H. Loyall, qualified in the Corporation Court, and assumed charge of the office yesterday. It is pointed out by the political opponents of Mr. Loyall that he was elected illegally to the office, and that if the Supreme Court decides that this is true, everyone of his official acts will be null and void. Mr. Loyall and his friends take an entirely different view of the situation. The political affairs of the city are in a hopelessly muddled state, and lawyers, politicians and office-holders are in a quandary as to what to do and how to do it, and are mystified as to what will be the final outcome of the vexed problem with which they are now confronted by having two sets of municipal appointive officers.

THROW GLOVE IN THE FACE OF REPUBLICAN

The convention is enthusiastic. Every opportunity to cheer is seized by the delegates. Wm. Jennings Bryan came in shortly before Senator Jones called the convention to order and took his seat with the Nebraska delegation. There was cheering in the galleries and a man in the Georgia delegation stood up and yelled. There was no more applause. Four years ago speakers in the Kansas City convention avoided mentioning the name of Bryan, because of the storm of applause that was bound to follow. David B. Hill's name was mentioned in an unwary speech at Kansas City in 1900 an hour after the convention was called to order and the applause was so great that it had to be taken to prevent a stampede. He came into the hall at 12:08 to-day and took his seat with the New York delegation. There was not a note of applause and if the gallery knew he was in the hall, there was no sign given by him.

Will Nominate To-day.

The convention will adopt a platform to-morrow that will be according to schedule. It looks to-night as though Parker will be nominated to-morrow, which will not be in accord with the programme. Mr. Hill said to-night the nomination would be made to-morrow. The second place on the ticket will be filled Friday. Both nominations were scheduled for Friday.

I stated in my dispatches last night that George W. Turner, of Washington, would probably be the Vice-Presidential nominee. There is little reason to think anybody else could be nominated to the place, but there is strong opposition in the South.

Turner is a carpet-bagger," said one of the most prominent members of the Virginia delegation to-night. "The best endorsement he has is from Roosevelt. I will not vote for Turner unless the delegation instructs for him."

Daniel Could Have It. The delegation would like to vote for a Southern man to second place. Senator Daniel could be nominated easily if he would say the word. So could John Sharp Williams. But neither would accept. It still looks like Parker and Turner, but there is opposition to both.

The Southern delegates. It is strange, but true, that the name of Marshall Field, of Chicago, who was thought a week ago to be certain of the nomination to the Vice-Presidency, is not heard of now.

Parker and Turner still appear to be the ticket. Tariff revision, with a strong "white man's plank," will be the feature of the platform.

HEARST LOSES AGAIN.

Whipped Out for Credentials Chairmanship.

(By Associated Press.) ST. LOUIS, MO., July 6.—The Committee on Credentials met immediately after the adjournment of the convention and perfected a temporary organization by electing A. M. Robinson, of Mobile, Ala., as temporary chairman, and A. M. Bailey, of Delaware, as temporary secretary. Adjournment was then taken until 7 o'clock. As soon as the meeting was called to order to-night by Temporary Chairman Robinson, James M. Head, of Tennessee, was nominated by James W. Ridgeway, of New York, for permanent chairman. John J. Fitzgerald, of Rhode Island, a former supporter, nominated J. R. Corrigan, of Minnesota. The question of Parker men controlling the committee depended upon the selection of the chairman, for Head and the Tennessee delegation are avowed supporters of the New York candidate. On the vote Parker men won a decisive victory. Mr. Head being elected by a vote of thirty-two to twenty.

The committee then took a short recess in order to secure from the National Convention the record of contests heard by that body. By unanimous vote the Credentials Committee decided to award six seats and six votes each to the Cleveland delegation and six to the Baltimore delegation. A motion in behalf of the Philadelphia delegation was made by Mr. Robinson, of Alabama, and was amended by a delegate from South Dakota and made applicable to the Porto Rican delegation as well. The delegates from the New York delegation, by a vote of 10 to 8, defeated the Norris or anti-Hearst faction.

CLEVELAND A-FISHING.

Had No Comment to Make on St. Louis Demonstration.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUZZARD'S BAY, July 6.—Ex-President Cleveland did not go to Sandwich, N. H., to-day, as he intended, but went fishing instead with Joseph Jefferson. When he returned from the fishing trip, he heard the news from St. Louis, telling him the Democratic Convention had cheered the mention of his name by the temporary chairman. He had no comment to make upon it. Nothing was done to-day about running a telegraph wire from the railway station to Gray-Gables, which causes the impression that the project was dropped. It is said that Mr. Cleveland may possibly go to Sandwich to-morrow. Inquiries at the Jeffersons' recalled the fact, however, that no definite plans for to-morrow had been formed. One thing is very evident to all of Mr. Cleveland's personal friends here, is that he is not enjoying himself about the proceedings in St. Louis. So far as known he has had no communication to-day with any of the Democratic leaders here.

BRYAN SICK.

Brother Says His Illness Does Not Amount to Much.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ST. LOUIS, MO., July 6.—There was a report to-day that Mr. Bryan was seriously ill, but this was denied by his brother, Charles, who said the Nebraska man was more tired than anything else. He got up at 10 A. M., which is unusual for him. His room was dark last night at 11:30.

"Mr. Bryan expressed some symptoms of fever during the night," said his brother, "but I do not think it amounts to anything. Dr. Jennings, a relative, was at the headquarters all day. But Mr. Bryan took little medicine. I moved the clock back an hour so that my brother would not know the actual time. Mr. Bryan is not prostrated, but a little worn out."

Despite his brother's statement, Colonel Bryan is a sick man. He remained at his headquarters for a short time after the convention adjourned.

DANIEL HELD CONVENTION IN TERRIBLE SUSPENSE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, July 6.—Right in the midst of Williams' wonderful speech, when a brilliant peroration had stirred the convention, Senator John Daniel, Virginia's greatest orator, rose slowly and impressively from his seat.

With a look of grave concern in his strong face, the Virginian slowly reached out around into the tall pocket of his coat.

Delegates near by looked at him in surprise. The rumor flew that Daniel had risen to contradict the delegates' action.

The orator paused and looked toward Daniel. The senator was searching for the object of his quest. The suspense grew great.

Then a look of satisfaction crept over Mr. Daniel's face, and smiling kindly he sat down.

"Daniel has found his smoking tobacco," whispered a delegate.

BAILEY DECLINES; CLARK MAY ACCEPT

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, MO., July 6.—Senator J. W. Bailey, of Texas, and Representative Champ Clark, of Missouri, have both declined to accept the permanent chairmanship of the Democratic National Convention. When the committee on permanent organization met it organized without delay. Senator Bailey and Representative Clark were put in nomination. The former was elected—18 to 16. The committee then immediately elected Charles A. Walsh, of Iowa, secretary of the National Committee, as permanent secretary of the convention. All other officers of the permanent organization were elected by the committee and the committee adjourned under the impression that its labors were ended.

Senator Bailey was informed of his election he announced at once that he could not accept, as he desired to be on the floor with the platform. Clark, on the other hand, was named by the committee as permanent chairman. He is expected to accept any attempt from the Bryan forces to inject into the platform plank that do not meet the approval of the committee. Therefore his declination of the chairmanship was respected. Senator Bailey urged that the name of Senator Clark be given to Clark, and a committee called on Clark and made the tender. Mr. Clark answered that he was engaged to put the name of Senator Cockrell in nomination for the Presidency, and therefore would have to be on the floor during the convention. He was urged to reconsider, and finally agreed to send a telegram to Senator Cockrell to the effect that the name of Clark was reached to have him accept the chairmanship. Mr. Clark will accept. In view of the certainty that Parker will be nominated it is believed that the name of Clark will be given to Clark. Senator Bailey gave out a statement saying he would not accept an election as permanent chairman over such a friend as Champ Clark. In the event of Senator Cockrell's friends insisting on pressing his name to the convention it is thought the nomination will be made by some member of the Missouri delegation. Mr. Clark would then be free to accept the chairmanship.

ST. LOUIS, July 6.—On account of the difficulties which have arisen in connection with the matters of a permanent character connected with the convention, a conclusion has been reached to have only a very brief session of the convention to-morrow. The convention will meet at 10 o'clock, but it is probable that none of the more important committees will be able to report at that time.

In view of Senator Bailey's declination of the permanent chairmanship it is believed that the temporary organization may be continued for a day. The press, which expected to-day give from its sources to be of more than an hour's duration.

The Japanese Are Now Trying to Isolate Mukden.

A BIG BATTLE IS RAGING

Wounded Are Being Brought Into Liao Yang From the Mountains.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, July 7.—The Liao Yang correspondent of the Daily Telegraph in a dispatch dated July 7th, at 1 A. M., says:

"A battle is proceeding twenty-five miles from here. 'Numbers of wounded are being brought in from the mountains. 'Evidently the engagement is a severe one."

"It is believed that the Japanese are continuing their advance with the object of cutting off Mukden."

Reports have been received here of the appearance of Japanese outposts on the roads leading to Mukden. A company of Japanese infantry scouts was seen near Liao-Ti-Shan. On the other hand, the Japanese have withdrawn from the passes taken June 23rd and 27th, and their advance from Liao-Shan Kwan has ceased. The Russian's eastern corps has moved forward to Khawon (Ho Syan) and Ho-Beamen, which the Russians had evacuated and are occupied.

The latest movements of the Japanese are difficult to understand. They seem to be trying to enter by all doors. Probably the armies commanded by Generals Kuroki and Oku are combining to operate against Ta Tung Kiao and Hsiao Ching in order to gain possession of the plain and enable them to advance on Liao Yang.

St. Petersburg Account of Togo's Exploit Very Different

(By Associated Press.)

ST. PETERSBURG, July 6, 1:30 P. M.—A few nights ago Admiral Togo attempted to repeat the Japanese exploit with torpedoes at Wei-Hai-Wei during the Russo-Japanese war, by sending torpedo boats to attack the harbor of Port Arthur. The attempt failed.

Some of the Japanese admirals are in going to almost certain destruction. The channel at Port Arthur is so tortuous and narrow that it is impossible to protect the boats, but only one escaped. Two were sunk by the shore batteries and one was captured.

ACCIDENT AT THE SHOPS

Kingston Brunston Sustains a Compound Fracture of Leg. Negro Shoots at Officer.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, Va., July 6.—Answers in the suit of George E. Fisher against Frank and Helen Miller Gould and the Virginia Passenger and Power Company to throw that company into the hands of a receiver, were filed to-day in the Corporation Court here.

The answer of the Goulds was read to Judge Mullen this afternoon by Messrs. Munford and Anderson, representing the Goulds. The answer charges fraud on the part of Fisher, and is accompanied by affidavits, charging him with having spent hundreds of dollars a day for weeks at a time in the purchase of street car tickets in order to make the earnings, as shown on the books, seem greater than they really were.

It is also charged with having juggled the accounts of the company in such a manner as to make it appear that the operating expenses were much lower than they really were. Mr. Gould declares in his answer that these practices have been carried on by Fisher and his confidential man, Louis B. Spencer, when Dr. Munn, a friend of his family, came to him on behalf of himself and Fisher to get enough money to pay off the company's obligations. He was shown these juggled accounts, and, believing them to be true, advanced enough money to satisfy the applicants. This was in December, 1902.

It is also charged in the answer that when Fisher combined the Richmond electric properties under the franchise of the Richmond Passenger and Power Company, he caused to be placed upon them a capitalization of $3,000,000 of bonds and $1,300,000 of stock. This capitalization was made after an examination by expert appraisers had showed that the physical value of the property was not worth a million, and that, within three years and six months, Fisher, prior to that date of the Gould advance, it has greatly depreciated. For bringing about this merger, Fisher and Munn received $300,000 of the consolidated bonds, and the entire issue of stock, consisting of $1,200,000 securities, or a grand total of $2,500,000.

FISHER GETS IT ALL. The next year Fisher had the company issue $1,000,000 of debenture bonds, of which he received $200,000 for services, and later acquired the entire remainder, $800,000. This later feat of finance was performed by Fisher, having entered on the books of the company a charge of $785,357.77 for "construction, equipment and franchises." To offset this charge against the company, he had delivered to him the remaining $400,000 of the debenture bonds.

Mr. Gould again charges that Fisher again had credited to himself items aggregating $150,000, of which more than $12,000 was for property Mr. Gould alleges Fisher had already been paid for.

The Goulds answer covers the entire financial history of Fisher in Virginia, and contains charges of fraud, trickery and deceit through all of his many street railroad transactions in Richmond.

There is a brilliant array of counsel for both sides, and the fight before Judge Mullen will probably last more than a week.

Following prominent attorneys appear as counsel in the case: For the Goulds, Messrs. Munford, Hinton, Williams and Anderson; for the Fisher, Messrs. McKenney, of Richmond, for the company, Messrs. Martin and Christian, of Richmond, and for Fisher, Messrs. Tuttle, of Baltimore, and Messrs. Hamilton and R. B. Davis, of Petersburg.

The coupons must be in by October 1st to the coupons of the bonds of the Virginia Passenger and Power Co., which were due to mature in July, owing to pending litigation.

Dr. Virginius Harrison was called yesterday to Norfolk for consultation as to whether it would be advisable for Mr. Shine to continue his trip. Mr. Shine is with his mother, Dr. J. G. Riddick, Mayor of Norfolk, is attending him.

A special to The Times-Dispatch from Norfolk says: R. Edgar Shine, a Richmond druggist, is seriously ill in the city at the home of his brother-in-law, N. B. Grooms, Jr. Park Place. Mr. Shine came here from a visit to New York, and was taken seriously sick. His condition is regarded as very grave.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT. E. B. Moon and Friends Arrested for Trespass, Hence the Suit. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ASHTON, Pa., July 6.—E. B. Moon, proprietor of Kenilworth Inn, and organizer of the rich men's club, which intends to lease the hunting and fishing privileges of Blinnore forest, has begun suit in the United States Court against J. C. Rumbough, Mrs. Rumbough, J. E. Rumbough and Jack Rumbough, for $50,000 damages.

The basis of the suit is the occupancy by the Moon family of the Blinnore forest, which was leased by Mr. Moon, and it is stated that the lease has a number of years yet to run. About two weeks ago, during the absence of Mr. Moon, the defendants, who are the owners of the property, took possession of the forest. While attempting to enter the forest, Mr. Moon and one of his friends were arrested, on the complaint of Mr. Jack Rumbough, for trespassing.

MAN INSTANTLY KILLED BY A GEORGIA FARMER. (By Associated Press.) AUGUSTA, GA., July 6.—A special to the Chronicle from Washington, Ga., says Mr. Bukey Sutton, one of the largest farmers of Wilkes county, this afternoon shot and killed Dr. Robert J. Walton, near Danbury. Dr. Walton is a brother to Dr. J. H. Walton, of Atlanta.

Sutton came immediately to town after the shooting and gave himself up to the sheriff. He refuses to talk of the affair more than to say that Dr. Walton drew a pistol on him at his front gate, when Sutton emptied his contents of his pistol into him, killing Walton instantly.

It is understood here to-night that Judge Parker will not formally notify of his nomination, he has expressed to William F. Sheehan his desire that he shall take place at a very early date, even within a fortnight.
